

PLAN NEW GRAND ARMY
WITH 3,000,000 MEMBERS

Veterans of Foreign Wars Start
Nation Wide Recruiting Campaign.

A Nation-wide campaign was started in this city today by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States to swell the present membership of 100,000 to 3,000,000. In charge of the campaign are George Kiehl, Lemuel Holley, recently of the 95th Infantry, cold 49th, and Thomas H. Cawley, just returned from service with the 28th (New England) Division in France.

Several prominent men are heading the campaign to make the soldiers as numerous as possible in the Grand Army of the Republic. The Veterans, with strong headquarters at No. 32 Union Square, are to be found in the homes of Gen. John J. Pershing and many of the highest officers of the army and navy among its members. In this city several new units have been organized within the last month, one being named after Gen. William Roosevelt, who came to New York to greet the boys of the 15th when they return. One aim of the promoters is to effect Rooseveltism.

16-YEAR-OLD SCHOOL
GIRL MISSING FROM HOME SINCE JAN. 12

Wounds Five More Before Overpowered in Exciting Chase

In Crowded Street.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 28.—With a loaded revolver in each hand, a man who gave his name as "Dante, son of Jesus Christ," ran amuck through the streets near the centre of the city yesterday, shooting in every direction as a big crowd tried to capture him. Before he was finally overtaken and beaten into insensibility by a motor-cycle policeman, he had shot and killed three men and wounded five others, two of them seriously.

According to the police, the man is a religious fanatic and had become obsessed with the idea that the spirit of his father was being tortured in the power house of the transit company, where he shot his first two victims. Rushing out of the power house before other employees realized what had happened, the crazed man fled through the streets with a crowd of civilians and policemen in pursuit. Two blocks away he came upon Policeman Dingall, who was standing in the centre of the street directing traffic. With a wild cry he dashed at the policeman, firing as he ran. Dingall fell mortally wounded.

All the time the pursuing crowd was growing in numbers and after a chase of about a mile Motorcycle Policemen Knox and Heron overtook him. Finding that he was trapped the man wheeled around and thrust revolvers against the bodies of both. One pointed at Knox, went off and killed him instantly, but directed against Heron missed fire and the officer shot the maniac in the leg and beat him into unconsciousness.

The police of New York and of all nearby New Jersey cities are cooperating in a search for Miss Mabel J. Bush, a sixteen-year-old schoolgirl who disappeared on Jan. 12 from her home at No. 25 Seaview Avenue, Jersey City.

George C. Bush, the missing girl's father, said to-day that his daughter had been pleading for some time for permission to drop her studies and go to work, but her parents had refused to allow this. The father believes it is possible she has obtained work somewhere, and if this is the case he begs that she communicate with the family, as her mother is prostrated over her absence. If she returns she will be allowed to have her way about working.

But Mr. Bush and police working on the case fear Miss Bush is being detained against her will, and this appears to be supported by the elements of mystery in the case. Miss Bush had made plans for going to the opera the night of Jan. 12, but changed her mind toward evening. At 7 P. M. her father saw her board a car bound for Hoboken. That is the last any of her relatives or friends have seen of her. She had never before been away from home overnight and there is no known motive that would cause her to go away voluntarily.

PALESTINE FUND GROWING.

Zionist Organization Hopes to Reach $1,000,000 Mark Soon.

With uncertainty of the amount raised, the Zionist Organization of America urges today on the second week of its nation wide campaign for a $1,000,000 fund for the restoration of Palestine. Reports received at headquarters, No. 25 Fifth Avenue, indicate the desired total soon will be attained.

The campaign has been given new impetus by a stirring appeal made last night by Jacob H. Schiff at a banquet presided over by Judge Julian W. Mack, president of the Zionist Organization. He pointed out the necessity of funds for the establishment of a homeland for the Jewish people.

Other speakers were Bernard A. Baruch, president of the Zion Commonwealth, and Prof. Montreal Kaplan.
